Ride to the Wall 2016

Today is an opportunity for people to unite as one and remember those that have given their lives in conflict and can no longer ride by our side.

Originally founded in 2008 for the motorcycle community, RTTW sees people, both young and old, from the UK, Europe and further afield come together in a moving, emotional service to remember the names engraved on the walls of the Armed Forces Memorial.

Through your commitment and generous support, Ride to the Wall has raised over £500,000 towards the upkeep of the National Memorial Arboretum, the UK's year-round centre of Remembrance.

We hope that you enjoy this year's event. Please see inside for a full timetable of Ride to the Wall events and activities.

Text RTTW08 £5 to 70070 to donate £5

The National Memorial Arboretum

The National Memorial Arboretum is the UK's year-round centre of Remembrance. Open every day except Christmas Day, the site features more than 330 individual memorials, each with its own stories and symbolism.

On the 21 October the Arboretum will begin the next chapter in its story when its new Remembrance Centre opens to the public. We hope that you will be able to visit it soon.

If you require any further information during your visit, please speak to a member of the friendly and knowledgeable Arboretum team!

Christmas Card Challenge

Help us break the current World Record for the most names on a greeting card. Our card will be presented to HM Armed Forces later this year.

We are aiming to collect more than 20,000 signatures, and you are able to contribute yours today!

10.50am – 11.20am Daily Act of Remembrance & Welcome Talk

Please note the service will be relayed outside when the chapel capacity has been reached. The Welcome Talk, without the Act of Remembrance, will be repeated in the chapel at 2pm.

2pm - 2.20pm Welcome & Addresses

A welcome will be heard from RTTW founder Martin Dickinson, followed by addresses from Lieutenant General Paul Jaques, Patron RTTW; Air Commodore Simon Richardson, Patron RTTW and Sarah Montgomery, Managing Director of the National Memorial Arboretum.

2.20pm RTTW Service

Remembrance service conducted by Reverend Vic Van Den Bergh, Chaplain.

2.40pm Wreath Laying

Wreath laying led by piper Leif Findlay followed by Martin Dickinson, Lieutenant General Jaques and Air Commodore Richardson.

9am - 5pm Catering Village

The catering village, located on the Royal Naval Review, will be open throughout the day serving a variety of hot and cold drinks and snacks.

9am - 5pm The Pavilion Lunch Room and Café Bar

The Pavilion Lunch Room and Café Bar will be open throughout the day serving a range of beverages, fresh snacks and meals.

Helmet Stores

Leave your motorcycle helmet at our dedicated store during the course of today. £2 per helmet.

Registration

If you haven't already done so, visit the registration tent to register for this year's event and receive your 2016 RTTW year bar. A voluntary contribution of £10 per person is suggested. All proceeds from this event will be donated to the National Memorial Arboretum which requires over £4,000 every day to remain a free-to-enter site.
