3rd October 2015

A message from RTTW Founder Martin Dickinson,
...2015 sees the 8th year of this unique event, which has brought together all areas of our community who join we bikers on the day remembering over 16000 names that are engraved on the walls of the Armed Forces Memorial at the National Memorial Arboretum. The annual ride brings everyone from near & far together attending the service at the NMA on the first Saturday in October. Remembering those who can no longer ride by our side and welcoming all, biker or not. The event has highlighted the immense generosity and kindness of the wider motorcycling community, bringing together motorcyclists & members of the wider community sharing similar values and building bonds between us all. Since the first ride in 2008, with your support, we have managed to raise £318,000 for the NMA. The money you have so kindly donated goes towards the upkeep of the stunningly beautiful & peaceful Arboretum, which is home to the largest memorial outside of the capital, the Armed Forces Memorial Wall.
